President's Annual Evaluation

Chair Truesdell presented the President's evaluation at the meeting. She reported that the Board has found that Dr. Harrison has proven time after time to be the consummate team leader who has worked diligently to get the job done. She highlighted the following comments from the Board:

- Bob meets routinely with community leaders to stay abreast of the needs of all constituencies in the region. He is routinely looked to for guidance, respected by people in higher education and is a critical thinker who works continuously to unite all sectors of the local economy.
- His collaborative approach, his inclusive nature and his desire to find common ground from which to grow the community at large are hallmarks of his leadership capabilities.
- The focus has been returned to our students, while also working diligently with K-12 players and staying sharply in tune with the business community and other constituent groups. These efforts have turned the institution around significantly.
- Dr Harrison is dedicated to assuring that the institution's infrastructure is never forgotten . . . his assurance that technology upgrades are paramount to the advancement of our mission, vision and goals . . . and his endless attention to detail have breathed new life into Lake Michigan College.
- Bob is one of the most affable and likable and effective leaders in the institution's history.
